

WHERE WILL NEVADA BE?

The result of the silver legislation between now and the next Presidential election will decide where Nevada will be politically. That the present Republican party is hostile to silver no one will deny.

It has had two sessions of Congress in which to demonstrate its friendship for silver, and the fact as been forcibly brought home to us that the present leaders of the party from the President down, are active supporters of Wall street and pronounced enemies of white metal.

When Harrison was running for his Presidential office, it was understood that he was friendly to the restoration of silver to its old place as it stood prior to the fraudulent Demonetization Act of 1873. For nearly twenty years the trickery of men interested in degrading silver for their own financial advantage has prevailed, and the President of the United States has meekly received his orders from Wall street and the Bank of England.

Whether Republican or Democratic, they are all tarred with the same stick.

Mr. Newlands in an interview with the Washington Post says that the present Republican Congress is assisting the party to political suicide.

This is indeed the fact, and a fact to be the more regretted, as the State elections of last Fall sounded a warning to the party plain enough for the densest blockhead to understand.

Because of the failure of silver legislation of the previous session, such Republican strong-holds as Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Michigan, Kansas and Nebraska went Democratic.

By simply passing the Free Coinage Act in Republican Congress could have brought those States back in their old place in the Republican ranks. This it was willing to do until the emissaries of the gold-bugs reached Washington and cracked the lash over the backs of the members. Wall street is for Wall street and nothing else, and the supremacy of the Republican party is but a secondary consideration, when its own interests are concerned. Its aim is to control the financial policy of the party in power.

The Democratic party has been in power and submitted to this humiliating dictation, just as the Republican party is now submitting to it.

The Farmer's Alliance party is now pressing into the field demanding, among other things, the free coinage of silver. We all want to know the shortest possible route to that goal.

We have no interest whatever in the tariff questions, as we manufacture nothing. Free Coinage is the one and only fight for us to engage in.

Death of Senator Hearst.

Senator Hearst, of California, died Saturday evening in Washington. He was a type of the open handed pioneer of the early days, and it will be a long time before California sees a millionaire so generous and gentle as this warm-hearted old man. He leaves an estate of twenty millions.

Hon. W. H. Mills would be just the man for a successor to Senator Hearst. He is one of the liveliest and brainiest men ever produced in California. He will probably not get it as he would not pay a quarter of a dollar for it.

An attempt is being made to beat the Australian ballot bill in the house. Its defeat will give the Democrats lots of capital.

Cock Fight.

There will be a cocking main in Empire on Wednesday evening of this week. The first fight between Decker and Page's birds will be for $100.

The beauty of these fights is that the birds fight to win and never lay down until they have to. Admission 50 cents.
